Governance Policies

Introduction

These policies, which follow the nine areas outlined in the Decision Making Model of Governance, are divided by the following topics; accountability, risks, roles and responsibilities, finance, representation, planning, board operations, decision making, and evaluation.

Definitions

In these policies:

Board Member means a person elected or appointed to the board of ASNL.

Closed Session means a portion of a meeting of the board members only and the Chief Executive Officer unless otherwise requested.

Committee means any standing or ad hoc group of people officially established by the board to perform a function specified by the Board.

Committee Chairperson means the board member chosen to lead a standing or ad hoc committee of the Board.

Conflict of Interest generally means any situation in which a board member or employee has or promotes an interest which results in:

a) any interference with the objectivity with which one is expected to exercise responsibilities and duties to and on behalf of the board; and/or

b) any situation where

(i) a board member's or employee's personal interests, those of a family member, a close friend, a business associate, or

(ii) a corporation or partnership in which a board member or employee holds a significant interest, or

(iii) a person to whom the board member or employee owes an obligation could influence the board member's or employee's decisions and impairs the board member's or employee's ability to fairly, objectively and impartially represent the interests of the board, and/or

(c) any advantage or material gain to the board member, employee and/or to other persons with whom they do not deal at arm's length, by virtue of the relationship in their role on the Board or as an employee.

Consensus means all board members present at a meeting support the proposed decision.

Ex-Officio means membership by virtue of office or position and that person is not granted voting privileges and is not counted in the quorum of a committee.

Executive means the four-member executive of the board of ASNL and consists of a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer elected from within the board.

Chief Executive Officer means the chief employee of the board.

Harassment means any sexual conduct, general conduct, comment, gesture, or contact of a sexual nature or bullying that is likely to cause offense or humiliation or that might be perceived on reasonable grounds, as placing a condition on employment or an opportunity for training or promotion.

Immediate Family means a partner, parent, sibling, child, stepchild or ward, grandchild, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandparent or another relative permanently residing in the employee's household

Nominal Value means a value of $125.00 or less.

Open meeting means a meeting of the board that is open to the public and refers to the Annual General Meeting.

One voice means all board members support the decisions of the board in discussions with stakeholders.

Chairperson of the Board means the Chairperson of a board of directors of ASNL.

- 1.9. Staff shall not fail to be entitled to up to three working days with pay for bereavement leave upon the death of one's immediate family and two additional days at the discretion of the CEO where extensive travel is involved.
- 1.10. The board shall not fail to, where possible, provide permission for unpaid leave to enable an employee to run as a candidate in either the Municipal, Provincial, or Federal elections; this leave would start, at the latest, at the date the nomination is closed and ends no later than the date on which the nomination or election results are finalized.
- 1.11. The board shall not fail to report accomplishments to members and partners.

2.0. Board Operations

These policies set the rules and limitations of the Chairperson of the Board, of the individual board members, the board as a whole, and the Chief Executive Officer.

Attendance

- 2.1. Board members shall not fail to inform the Chief Executive Officer's office and/or the Chairperson of the Board, a minimum of 48 hours before a meeting that they are unable to attend unless emergency conditions exist.

Orientation

- 2.2. The board shall not fail to design a board member orientation package and process.
- 2.3. Board members shall not fail to participate in a board-approved orientation within three months of appointment/election.

Code of Conduct (see Appendix A)

- 2.4. No board member or the Chief Executive Officer shall violate any part of the Code of Ethics. Therefore, each person shall, at all times:
- 2.4.1. be loyal to the interests of ASNL;
 - 2.4.2. uphold the mission, mandate and core values of ASNL;
 - 2.4.3. Speak with one voice regardless of personal opinion about any board decision;
 - 2.4.4. convey decisions of the board accurately and fully when required to do so by the board;
 - 2.4.5. be diligent in performing ASNL business;
 - 2.4.6. always act in the best interests of ASNL;
 - 2.4.7. be knowledgeable about Robert's Rules of Order and behave accordingly;
 - 2.4.8. prepare for and attend meetings regularly ensuring compliance with ASNL's mandate and partnership agreements;
 - 2.4.9. comply with the conflict of interest policies;
 - 2.4.10. accept gifts of nominal value arising out of their activities associated with their official duties and responsibilities, if such items are (i) within the bounds of propriety, a normal expression of courtesy, or (ii) within normal standards of hospitality, are not such as to bring suspicion on the individual's objectivity and impartiality, and would not compromise the integrity of ASNL;
 - 2.4.11. accept gifts of more than nominal value and shall ensure they become the property of ASNL;
 - 2.4.12. report all official gifts, hospitality, and other benefits received in conjunction with an official event to the Chairperson of the Board;
 - 2.4.13. not attempt to exercise individual authority except as explicitly outlined in board policies;
 - 2.4.14. make negative comments about the Chief Executive Officer or staff performance outside of the boardroom;
 - 2.4.15. sign and adhere to the ASNL's Board Members' Code of Conduct;
 - 2.4.16. keep in confidence all matters and decisions until authorized to release such information and shall not take advantage of or use to their benefit any information not available to the public, or disclose such information to a partner, business associate or close family member;
 - 2.4.17. adhere to the Standards of Behaviour in dealings with the board and all stakeholders;

- 2.4.18. refrain from discrimination based on race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, disability, or political opinion;
- 2.4.19. relay to other board members information needed to make responsible decisions;

- 2.4.21. govern (Board) and manage (Chief Executive Officer) risks to ensure ASNL is well managed and operated;
- 2.4.22. provide programs and services based on the financial means of ASNL;
- 2.4.23. comply with applicable laws and regulations of federal, provincial,
- 2.4.24. municipal Governments and other appropriate public and private regulatory agencies;
- 2.4.25. refrain from giving any candidate who is running for a political office or supporters of a candidate, the impression that a personal endorsement is an endorsement by ASNL or that ASNL will provide any materials or services to the candidate; and
- 2.4.26. encourage co-operation and participation with Provincial and Federal governmental departments, members of ASNL, donors, and partner organizations.

Confidentiality

- 2.5. Board members and employees shall not fail to keep confidential any documentary or oral information about partners, individual personnel, committee matters, and closed sessions of the board unless otherwise agreed upon by motion of the board.

Conflict of Interest (See Appendix C)

- 2.6. Board members shall not fail to avoid conflict of interest and ensure there is no self-dealing or any conduct of private business or personal services between any board member or their company and ASNL.
- 2.7. A board member shall absent herself from the deliberations and the voting process when the board is to decide upon an issue about which a member has a conflict of interest.
- 2.8. Conflict of interest shall not fail to be recorded in the minutes.
- 2.9. Board members shall refrain from using their positions to obtain employment for themselves, family members, or close associates.
- 2.10. Where a Director desires employment with ASNL, they must first resign their position on the board before tender being awarded or the job interviews being completed.
- 2.11. Board members shall not fail to annually disclose in a written signed statement, their involvements with other organizations or associations that could produce a conflict.
- 2.12. Board members shall not fail to report all conflict of interest via the channels outlined in ASNL organizational chart.
- 2.13. The board of ASNL shall not fail to ensure that conflicts of interest are resolved in the best interests of ASNL.
- 2.14. Board members shall not fail to disclose a conflict of interest as soon as the agenda is received or at the earliest time thereafter.
- 2.15. If a conflict of interest is discovered after a decision is made that might have been affected by knowledge of that conflict, the decision is not void or voidable, unless 1/3 of the sitting board members of the board ask that the decision be reconsidered.

- 2.16. If a director knowingly fails to disclose a conflict of interest, ASNL reserves all rights it may have at law to have any contract entered into or any action taken set aside, revoked or rescinded, and the director shall not fail to be terminated from the board.

Special Meetings of the Board

- 2.17. The Chairperson shall call a Special meeting between regularly scheduled meetings where decisions need to be made regarding:
- 2.17.1. governance items which are time-sensitive;
 - 2.17.2. issues which could lead to mediation or litigation;
 - 2.17.3. emergency situations; and/or
 - 2.17.4. personnel issues that cannot be dealt with by the Chief Executive Officer.

Closed Sessions of the Board

- 2.18. The board shall not fail to move to a closed session when any of the following issues are to be discussed:
- 2.18.1. potential opportunities presented by donors, or funders;
 - 2.18.2. financial issues that require analysis and clarification before bringing them to the public;
 - 2.18.3. options requiring deliberation before discussion with the membership or funders;
 - 2.18.4. an individual's qualifications to hold the job of Chief Executive Officer;
 - 2.18.5. results of the CEO evaluation;
 - 2.18.6. to review materials and information concerning criminal or civil actions which are not part of a public court record;
 - 2.18.7. for discussions which would disclose the identity of a bona fide and lawful donor to ASNL when the donor has requested anonymity;
 - 2.18.8. for discussion of the content of documents protected by privacy legislation;
 - 2.18.9. to hear a formal appeal by a member or staff member, unless the complainant requests an open hearing;
 - 2.18.10. to hear employee disciplinary or dismissal cases;
 - 2.18.11. to discuss personnel matters in which the names, competency, and abilities of individual employees or clients are discussed; and/or
 - 2.18.12. to review legal advice rendered to the board concerning an issue or a matter under board discussion, where the board has not yet taken a decision; and in other circumstances, as determined by the board or by the board in consultation with a legal counsel.

Bylaw and Policy Development

- 2.19. The board shall not fail to develop, delete, and/or change governance policies and bylaws as new information/evidence emerges.
- 2.20. The Board shall not fail to consider proposals from stakeholders for new governance policies or bylaws, changes to existing governance policies or bylaws and shall give the board a three-month notice of suggested deletions, modifications or additions.
- 2.21. Any person submitting an addition, modification or deletion to board shall not fail to request in writing to the Chairperson of the Board to be placed on the agenda of the board for consideration.
- 2.22. No governance policy or bylaw shall be exempt from the review process which shall occur within every two years.
- 2.23. The Board shall not fail to make a notation after each policy or bylaw to designate when it was developed and the last date it was added a new policy (A) or, amended or changed the wording (C).
- 2.24. Records of all original and deleted policies shall not fail to be maintained in the permanent board records.
- 2.25. Requests that relate to operational issues are referred to the Chief Executive Officer to be addressed in the management policies.

Quorum

- 2.26. A board member who abstains from participation or leaves a meeting because of their declared conflict of interest shall be included as present when determining whether there is a quorum; the majority present based on the quorum must vote in the affirmative for the motion to pass.
- 2.27. A quorum for any board committee meeting shall be a majority of the appointed/elected board members on the board committee.

Staff Treatment

- 2.28. Concerning the treatment of employees, the board shall not cause or allow conditions which are inhumane, unfair, or undignified. Accordingly, it shall not:
 - 2.28.1. differentiate among employees on other than clearly job-related criteria, individual performance or qualifications;
 - 2.28.2. fail to take reasonable steps to protect staff from unsafe or unhealthy conditions;
 - 2.28.3. withhold from staff a due-process complaint/appeal procedure, able to be used without bias; and
 - 2.28.4. fail to acquaint staff with their rights under the policy.

Standards of Behaviour

2.29. Each board member (governance) and the Chief Executive Officer (management) shall attend to their responsibility for providing leadership by adhering to the highest standards of behaviour as stated:

- Accountability Supports the goals of the board; accepts ownership of the conferred responsibilities; and, reports on the discharge of those accepted responsibilities and the results obtained.
- Big Picture Before making any decision, takes the time to view each issue from the perspective of the members, the relevant Government, and other Partner(s).
- Commitment Sets aside time to do governance work thoroughly, attends meetings, articulates their ideas in the designated forum, offers their expertise to the board, and acts in the best interest of those she represents.
- Communication Maintains a positive stance during all interactions, acknowledges divergent views, identifies areas of agreement and outstanding differences, and says what they mean without misrepresentation.
- Confidentiality Permits agreed upon governance processes to take their course, honors the role of the board’s spokesperson, and leaves information which is not designated for distribution to the public or respective governments within the boardroom.
- Evidence-Based Decision Making Only makes decisions about a program, practice, or policy after gathering the best available research and experiential evidence from the field along with the relevant contextual evidence.

Focus	Focuses on the issues, not the people involved, remains detached from personal comments, and makes the best decision possible under the current circumstances.
Leadership	Leads by example, accepts their governance role, does not try to manage ASNL in areas which have been delegated to the Chief Executive Officer, evaluates their activities, accepts the evaluation of others, and as a board member agrees to participate in a fair evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer.
Listen	Pays attention to incoming verbal and non-verbal information, compares this information to what they already know and interprets what is left unsaid.
Objectivity	Acknowledges their biases, consciously decides not to bring prejudices to the governance table, and declares any conflicts of interest before discussions, regarding any topic, at the board table.
Openness	Accepts the contributions of the members of ASNL, includes all board members in discussions, is open to change, builds on the culture and history of ASNL and respects the past while preparing for the challenges of the future.
Read	Reads the information provided, compares it to what is already known, and formulates questions to fill in the gaps.
Selflessness	Puts the concerns for the greater good of ASNL ahead of their interests, seeks first to understand the perspectives of others before sharing individual views, and upholds the decisions of the majority.
Team Player	Demonstrates a 'win-win' philosophy, participates actively in conflict resolution, actively judges when to hold firmly to a position and when to compromise, and protects the dignity of opponents.

Succession Planning

- 2.30. For all short-term emergency replacement requirements of the Chief Executive Officer, the Board shall not fail to identify who will be the acting Chief Executive Officer.
- 2.31. For permanent replacement requirements of the Chief Executive Officer, the Board shall not fail to follow its established protocol to find a suitable replacement.
- 2.32. The Board shall only proceed with the dismissal of the Chief Executive Officer after following statutory requirements, and an established due process.

3.0. Decision Making

Ad Hoc Committees

- 3.1. The Board shall only structure ad hoc committees
 - 3.1.1. by resolution and the terms of reference shall not extend beyond 12 months, and
 - 3.1.2. using comprehensive terms of reference to deal with particular issues in a specified manner.
- 3.2. Ad hoc committees shall not deal with items which are within the terms of reference of any Standing Committee.
- 3.3. A quorum of an ad hoc committee shall be no less than a simple majority.
- 3.4. Where the Chairperson of the Board has not appointed a chairperson to an ad hoc committee, the committee shall not conduct business until it has chosen a chairperson.
- 3.5. An ad hoc committee is considered dissolved when it has: delivered its final report; completed its project; at any time based on a resolution of the Board; or at the end of the term of office of the Board.
- 3.6. When the Chief Executive Officer's position is vacant, and the Executive Committee is not available, the Board shall appoint an ad hoc committee consisting of a maximum of three board members to search for a new Chief Executive Officer and to present the options to the Board.

Decision Making Process

- 3.7. The Board shall not fail to consider all options and the associated pros and cons before making any decision.
- 3.8. Committees shall not make decisions unless given specific authority by the board.

- 3.9. The Chairperson shall not advise on behalf of the board without authority from the Board.

Confidentiality

- 3.10. Board members and employees shall not fail to keep confidential any information about partners, individual personnel, committee matters, and closed sessions of the board unless otherwise agreed upon by an affirmative motion of the Board.

Minutes

- 3.11. The Chief Executive Officer or their designate shall not fail to act as the recorder, and record and maintain the minutes of the proceedings of the Board:
- topic, motion with the maker and/or seconder, and the decision (carried or not carried); and the
 - the topic only for advice or information items and any resources presented.
- 3.12. The Board shall not fail to approve the minutes, with any changes from the minutes of the preceding meeting, by motion and become the official minutes for that meeting.
- 3.13. The Vice-Chairperson shall ensure that minutes of board meetings and Executive Committee meetings, when it is acting in place of the Board, are signed by the Chairperson.
- 3.14. Attendance at board meetings shall be recorded only in the minutes as present, absent, and absent with regrets.

Presentations to the Board

- 3.15. The Board shall only schedule presentations to the board within time limits specified by the board which do not encroach on the board's ability to complete its approved agenda.

Appeals Hearing Process

- 3.16. The Board shall appoint a committee of three Board members to represent the board where the Executive of the Board is unable to perform this duty.
- 3.17. The Chair shall state the ground rules for the proceedings.
- 3.18. The Chair shall read an outline of the proceedings.
- 3.19. The Chief Executive Officer or relevant Board member shall begin by presenting the situation from ASNL's perspective and call a witness(es), who shall not be in the hearing room.
- 3.20. The complainant or representative may be allowed to cross-examine.
- 3.21. The complainant shall present the complainant's case with the reasons disagreeing with the decision and a request that the Board set aside the decision, and call a witness(es), who shall not be in the hearing room.
- 3.22. The Chief Executive Officer or relevant ASNL board member is given the right to cross-examine.
- 3.23. Closing arguments are heard from both parties.
- 3.24. The Chair shall inform the full board of the case, and the Board shall render a decision, and the Chairperson (or the Vice-Chairperson if the Chairperson is involved in the case) shall inform the complainant, in writing, of the decision.

4.0. Evaluation

- 4.1. The Chairperson of the Board shall not fail to ensure that the board as a whole decides upon a self-evaluation tool to be completed in the second quarter of the second year in office or more frequently when conditions warrant, and within every 18-months after that.
- 4.2. The Board shall not fail to determine the process for board member evaluation in the middle of each board member's term or when conditions warrant, and the Chairperson shall not fail to ensure that the process is fully implemented.
- 4.3. The Board shall not fail to work with the Chief Executive Officer and determine an agreed upon evaluation process for the Chief Executive Officer to be completed every 18 months.

5.0. Finance

Remuneration

- 5.1. Board members shall not fail to receive payment to cover travel costs incurred when attending board meetings as outlined in the motion passed by the board every year.

6.0. Planning

- 6.1. The Board shall not fail to complete a 3-year strategic and a yearly work-plan.
- 6.2. The Chairperson shall not fail to present an annual report at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).
- 6.3. The Chief Executive Officer shall not fail to have a 3-year operational plan and yearly work-plans.

7.0. Representation

Public Relations

- 7.1. The Board and Chief Executive Officer shall not fail to ensure that all public relations activities are in accordance with all funding agreements.
- 7.2. Only the Chief Executive Officer or their designate shall conduct media interviews regarding management issues.
- 7.3. Only the Chairperson or their designate shall conduct media interviews regarding governance issues.
- 7.4. The official spokespersons for ASNL are the Chairperson of the Board or their designate for governance issues, or the Chief Executive Officer or their designate for management issues.
- 7.5. When interacting with the public, press, or other entities, board members shall not fail to ensure that information conveyed is exactly as stated in board decisions.
- 7.6. All media releases related to governance issues shall not fail to be released after review by the board, and where there are high risks for the entity, all management releases shall not fail to be approved by the Board or the Board Executive Committee.

8.0. Risks

Programs and Services

- 8.1. To ensure that ASNL continues to deliver high-quality programs and services, ASNL shall not fail to:
- 8.1.1. require a pre-registration or pre-payment fee to ensure costs are covered;
 - 8.1.2. accept payment by cash, cheque or credit card (VISA, MasterCard or American Express);
 - 8.1.3. ensure NSF cheques are subject to a $25 service charge
